

WHY JOHN WROTE THIS LETTER

1John 1:4 And we are writing these things so that our joy may be complete.

1John 2:1 My little children, I am writing these things to you so that you may not sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous.

1John 2:7 Beloved, I am writing you no new commandment, but an old commandment that you had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word that you have heard. 8 At the same time, it is a new commandment that I am writing to you, which is true in him and in you, because the darkness is passing away and the true light is already shining.

1John 2:12 I am writing to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven for his name's sake. 13 I am writing to you, fathers, because you know him who is from the beginning. I am writing to you, young men, because you have overcome the evil one. I write to you, children, because you know the Father. 14 I write to you, fathers, because you know him who is from the beginning. I write to you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of God abides in you, and you have overcome the evil one.

1John 2:21 I write to you, not because you do not know the truth, but because you know it, and because no lie is of the truth.

1John 2:26 I write these things to you about those who are trying to deceive you.

1John 5:13 I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, that you may know that you have eternal life.

SOME OF THE "TROUBLING" TEXTS OF 1 JOHN

1John 2:3 And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. 4 Whoever says "I know him" but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him,

1John 3:6 No one who abides in him keeps on sinning; no one who keeps on sinning has either seen him or known him.

1John 2:15 Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

1John 4:21 And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother.

THREE "TESTS" OF SALVATION THROUGHOUT 1 JOHN

1. The _____ test — Do you _____ that Jesus is the Son of God (18x) and therefore, the _____ of the world?

1John 1:7 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin.

2. The _____ Test — Is it your desire to be holy? Are you making every _____ to live above sin?

1John 3:6 No one who abides in him keeps on sinning; . . .

3. _____ Test — Do you truly _____ others?

1John 4:21 And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother.

TODAY'S SCRIPTURES —

1John 2:1 My little children, I am writing these things to you so that you may not sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. 2 He is the propitiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world. 3 And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. 4 Whoever says "I know him" but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, 5 but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may know that we are in him: 6 whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked.

THE HOPE WE HAVE IN CHRIST - VERSE 1

1. Remember that John is writing to _____! This is a letter for people who already _____ Christ.

1John 2:1 My little children, . . . (14 times)

2. John uses the phrase "I am _____" (or "I write") 13 times in this letter. He wants you to understand his _____. (The first time he said this was in 1:4, for our ____ to be complete.)

3. His second purpose is that we may "_____." It's an encouragement to live a life of _____ and purity.

1John 2:1 My little children, I am writing these things to you so that you may not sin. . . .

4. But fortunately, he continues and gives us some "_____ room." He reminds us that we _____ sin after we become followers of Christ. The verb for sin is hamartanō (ἁμαρτάνω) and is an aorist subjunctive third-class conditional. This simply _____ that it can be translated like this: "If anyone does sin, and it will happen . . ."

1John 2:1 My little children, I am writing these things to you so that you may not sin. . . .

— Why do I still sin after I've become a Christian?

5. So, when we do sin, we have an _____ (paraklētos, παράκλητος) with the Father (or Judge). An intercessor stands _____ you and the judge, while an advocate stands _____ you. And this advocate, Jesus Christ, is righteous meaning He is _____ sin.

THE REASON FOR OUR HOPE - VERSE 2

1John 2:2 He is the propitiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world.

1. Since Jesus is the righteous Advocate, He is the _____. One who can be the "propitiation" (_____) for our sin.

2. And, since God is _____, He cannot just overlook sin but must be satisfied that sin has been punished or "_____ for."

3. When Jesus died on the cross, He paid for _____ the sin of the _____ world at _____ time. But, each person must _____ this payment through belief.

John 1:29 . . . "Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world!"

John 3:16 "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life.

THE EVIDENCE OF OUR FAITH - VERSES 3-6

1John 2:3 And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. 4 Whoever says "I know him" but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, 5 but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may know that we are in him: 6 whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked.

1. In these four verses, John re-emphasizes that _____ message: As Christians, make every _____ to live above sin!

2. He says that this is a testimony to our _____ (v.3); it is a testimony to our _____ (v.4); it is proof of God's _____ within us (v.5); it shows that we want to be _____ Jesus in our walk (v.6).

THE LESSONS WE LEARN?
